Executive Summary

- Montana's concentrate category spans 11,198 product listings from 291 brands, stocked in 376 of 399 tracked dispensaries (94% of the state) - distribution is broad and effectively table-stakes.
- The category is fragmented (HHI 880): the three largest brands hold roughly 31% of observed shelf presence, with the balance split across a long tail of 288 brands.
- Live resin & sauce is the largest sub-segment at 26% of concentrate listings, at a statewide median of $34.
- The statewide median 1g concentrate carries $30 on shelf - $30 / gram on a normalized basis.
- Across 18 observed nightly checks (Apr 12 - Jun 9), the statewide package-price median moved -3.8% ($31.20 -> $30).
- High Plains Extracts leads on shelf presence (198 stores, 84 SKUs) and sets the mainstream reference point a new entrant has to clear.
- Live resin and badder are the volume core; solventless rosin is the premium growth lane while distillate competes hard on price.

Decision Brief

DECISION QUESTION

Is Montana's concentrate category worth entering - and if so, where is the open lane?

COMMERCIAL READ

376 of 399 dispensaries already carry concentrate, so the question is not whether the category exists but where shelf is winnable. With 291 brands competing and the top three holding ~31% of shelf,

RECOMMENDATION

The fragmentation is the opening: no brand owns the category, so a focused entrant with a clear diamonds & sauce position and disciplined pricing can

CONFIDENCE

High - broad market set with multiple independent signals.

Recommended Action Plan

P1

Lead with the open lane: Diamonds & sauce

Why: At 4% of concentrate SKUs it is the least-crowded sub-segment, so a focused entrant faces the fewest incumbents.

Action: Build the launch line around diamonds & sauce to establish shelf, then expand into the crowded core once velocity is proven.

Watchout: Low share can signal low demand, not just low supply - validate sell-through, not only the shelf gap.

P2

Work the door list: the first 10 accounts

Why: The appendix ranks 10 stores by concentrate depth and brand fragmentation - Copper Mountain Cannabis (Sample) and Garden City

Action: Split the list by region, book the first ten conversations, and use each row's incumbent read to frame the pitch.

Watchout: Menu depth is shelf appetite, not a purchase order - confirm the buyer and menu freshness before driving out.

SAMPLE

ILLUSTRATIVE DATA - NOT A REAL STORE

P3

Price into the premium tier

Why: The ladder splits 30% value / 24% premium; the thinner tier is where pricing power is least contested.

Action: Anchor the hero SKU in the premium band ($39-80) and let velocity confirm the tier before widening the line.

Watchout: Montana skews price-sensitive; a premium position needs a visible potency or quality reason, not just packaging.

P4

Benchmark the shelf leader: High Plains Extracts

Why: High Plains Extracts sets the category reference at 198 stores and 84 SKUs (mainstream).

Action: Beat the leader on one axis - potency, format, or price-per-unit - rather than competing across all three at once.

Watchout: Shelf leadership reflects distribution muscle as much as consumer pull; do not assume relationships alone will dislodge it.

P5

Seed the launch in Billings / Yellowstone

Why: Billings / Yellowstone holds 16% of the dispensaries carrying the category - the densest demand to win first.

Action: Take a beachhead cluster of stores and prove velocity there before chasing statewide distribution.

Watchout: Density also means the most incumbent pressure - pair it with the differentiated position above.

P6

Use your included 90-day refresh at launch

Why: Montana menus move weekly; a market entered on a quarter-old read is the wrong market.

Action: Your purchase includes one refreshed re-run within 90 days - order it the month you commit, and measure your shelf gains against this

Analyst Notes

Category concentration

Montana's concentrate shelf is fragmented (HHI 880). The top three brands hold ~31% of shelf presence; the rest is a long tail of 288 brands fighting for the remainder. That shape sets how hard it is to take - and hold - shelf.

- High Plains Extracts: 198 stores, 84 SKUs, 12% shelf - mainstream.
- Helena Hash Co.: 162 stores, 61 SKUs, 10% shelf - premium-solventless.
- Stillwater Selects: 148 stores, 52 SKUs, 9% shelf - premium.
- Glacier Gold: 121 stores, 44 SKUs, 7% shelf - mainstream.
- Sapphire Standard: 98 stores, 33 SKUs, 5% shelf - mainstream.
- Cabinet Mountains Cannabis: 84 stores, 27 SKUs, 4% shelf - value.

Potency & price economics

The headline format (1g concentrate) clears a $30 median, or $30 / gram normalized. Where a tier is thin, pricing power is least contested - that is the band an entrant can price into rather than fight for.

- Value (30% of SKUs): $12-22, $18 / gram. Distillate, shatter, and bulk badder.
- Mainstream (46% of SKUs): $23-38, $30 / gram. Live resin and badder - the category core.
- Premium (24% of SKUs): $39-80, $55 / gram. Solventless rosin, diamonds, and cold-cure.

Demand geography

Live resin and badder are the volume core; solventless rosin is the premium growth lane while distillate competes hard on price. Geographic concentration shows where to seed first and where shelf is already saturated.

- Billings / Yellowstone: 62 carriers (16%), median $30 - Largest dab market; full tier spread.
- Missoula: 51 carriers (14%), median $28 - Value live resin over-indexes.
- Bozeman / Gallatin: 48 carriers (13%), median $36 - Highest solventless share in the state.
- Flathead (Kalispell-Whitefish): 45 carriers (12%), median $32 - Strong rosin demand.
- Helena: 32 carriers (9%), median $30 - Mainstream-led.
- Great Falls: 28 carriers (7%), median $26 - Value-weighted; distillate-heavy.

How the category is moving

Median of per-store category medians (pre-tax). Only nightly checks that passed data-quality gates are plotted, so the series can skip dates rather than estimate through a gap. Brand door counts are statewide across all categories - a directional read on distribution momentum, not category share.

- Statewide package-price median: $31.20 -> $30 (-3.8%) over 18 observed dates.
- High Plains Extracts: 194 -> 198 doors statewide (+4, all categories).
- Helena Hash Co.: 166 -> 162 doors statewide (-4, all categories).
- Stillwater Selects: 146 -> 148 doors statewide (+2, all categories).
- Glacier Gold: 127 -> 121 doors statewide (-6, all categories).
- Sapphire Standard: 98 -> 98 doors statewide (0, all categories).

Methodology

- Market size, reach, and shelf share use every tracked Montana dispensary menu in the latest menu check - not a sample.
- Shelf share is presence-based (product listings and carrying stores per brand), a proxy for visibility - not verified retail sell-through or wholesale volume.
- Concentration uses a Herfindahl-Hirschman Index over brand listing share; sub-segment and price-tier splits are share of distinct listings.
- Potency- and size-normalized prices use observed dose and pack size where present; items missing that data are excluded from the per-unit figure only.
- Target accounts are ranked by category shelf depth and brand fragmentation (how contested the shelf is) - an account-fit signal, not confirmation a buyer is in-market.
- The category trajectory is the median of per-store category medians on each nightly check that passed data-quality gates; skipped dates are omitted, never estimated through.
- Brand door movement uses statewide store counts across all categories - distribution momentum, not category-scoped share.
- The PDF is generated from saved report results and stamped with its data date so it can be reviewed again later.
